A RAILROAD CONDUCTOR IN A FIX.—The Charleston News, of a late date, states that, as Chang and Eng, the Siamese twins were going to Charleston the conductor of the cars made a fuss because they did not each have a ticket. The gentlemen who had charge of them said that they had always been carried on the tickets of a single passenger. The conductor replied that they were two persons, and occupied two seats; they must, therefore, pay for two passengers. "Very well," said the gentleman, "I will give the ticket to Chang, and you can put Eng off of the cars." This brought the conductor to his senses, and he knocked under.

A SENSATIONAL GIRL.—At a late ball in Baltimore, a gentleman (probably one of the social aristocracy) having danced with a young lady whose attractions, both personal and conversational, seem to have made an impression on his sensibilities, asked to have the pleasure of seeing her on the following evening.

"Why, no sir," replied the fair one, "I shall be engaged on to-morrow evening, but I will tell you where you can see me."

"I shall be most happy," exclaimed the girl, "to engage on to-morrow evening, but I will tell you where you can see me."

WATER LIME.—A few weeks ago, Fredy Water Lime was held, for sale at several rates, at the Rock Wardens' Hall.
